

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	xi
Acknowledgements	xiv
I. Introduction	2
How to Use This Book.....	6
Foundation – Who We Are.....	9
2. Assume the Best	10
Teachers Teach Procedures and Behavior.....	11
Students Want to Learn Content	13
Students Want to Learn Behavior	13
Phil the Baiter	16
3. Inner Authority	20
The Inner Authority Continuum.....	21
When and How to Apologize.....	23
Growing in Inner Authority	26
Approaches that work	26
4. Ask for Help	30
Characteristics of a Good Teacher.....	32
Countering Isolation	34
My bumpy start	35
Synonyms for help	36
We receive the help we ask for	37
Openness is win-win	37
Strategies	38
Help-ful tips for new teachers	38
Giving students chances to ask for help	40
Remembering we are role models	41

Checkout
 “What To Do First?”
 on page 131 if you are pressed for time.

5. Got Stress?	42
The Biggest Source of Teacher Stress	43
Our Infinite Job Description	45
Find What Works	46
Five minutes a day	47
Taking Care of Ourselves.	48
The bottom line of expectations.	50
Stress before the December holidays	51

Prevention – What We Do Proactively .. 53

6. Holding Our Ground	54
The Firm and Soft Paradox	56
Saying “No”	57
Don’t Over-explain	57
Characteristics of an Effective “No”	59
Ambiguous Characteristics of “No”	60
Anger vs. Reactivity	60
7. Positive Connections	64
The Ingredients — Caring	65
Doing what’s best, not what’s easiest.	66
Head, heart, and gut	67
The Recipe — Strategies	69
Choices	69
Specific things we can do	69
Writing vs. speaking.	73
Avoiding Pitfalls.	73
Getting too personal	73
Prepare for the worst — assume the best.	75
We are the boss. Period.	76
There will be times when we are not liked — hated, even. ..	76
The emotional charge-transfer game	78
Classes have no memory (though kids do).	79

8. Teaching Procedures	80
Procedures Are the Railroad Tracks — Content Is the Train.	82
What Procedures Do We Need?	83
How Do I Teach Procedures?	85
1. Practicing procedures: group work	86
2. Reviewing procedures regularly	88
3. Two procedures per lesson	90
4. Rubrics for procedures	92
Things to Do	93
Getting the class quiet	93
Directions, questions	100
9. Consistency	104
1. Hand and Mouth Dis-ease	106
2. Arguing With the Ref.	108
3. The Popcorn Effect	110
Other Consistency Keys	112
10. Getting Ready	114
What to Do Before School Starts	115
Before-School Checklist	116
Feeling overwhelmed?	123
What if you're hired at the last minute?	124
Room arrangement	125
Starting School	127
Activities for the first few days	127
What to Do First?	131
Before the first day	131
Procedures	132
Behavior	133
Content	133

11. Lesson Design	134
The Big Picture	135
The five-step lesson plan	136
Designing lessons	138
Starting the Lesson	138
Strategies	138
The Lesson Itself.	146
Strategies	146
Including all students	155
Movement breaks	155
Closure	157
Strategies	157

Intervention – What We Do in Response . . . 161

12. Rules and Consequences	162
Principles	164
Rules	165
Strategies	165
Consequences – Five Key Assumptions	167
Dan and the flying hammer	168
The Nuts and Bolts of Consequences.	172
Part 1. Which consequences to choose	172
Part 2. Implementing consequences	182
Part 3. Documenting misbehavior	191
Part 4. Making changes in our system	193
Part 5. Extrinsic vs. intrinsic rewards	196
13. Breaking the Cycle of Student Misbehavior	200
Assumptions That Make a Difference	201
Addressing the causes	201
Why students act out	202
Helpful approaches	203

Five Keys for Permanent Change	204
Example 1. Elementary school	205
Example 2. Middle school	207
Example 3. High school	208
Tips for Temporary Change	210
Strategies	210
14. Putting It All Together – Final Thoughts . . .	214
Classroom Management: The Big Picture	215
An observation checklist	216
Teaching and Learning: The Big Picture	219
A recipe for learning	219
Our Own Lives: The Really Big Picture	221
Index	226
About the Author	232