

Conscious Classroom Management & Brain Compatible Teaching Skills for Motivating All Our Students

PRESENTED BY Rick Smith

Come spend two and a half days with Rick Smith,
World-Class Presenter and Author of the best-selling book

Conscious Classroom Management: Unlocking the Secrets of Great Teaching

Learn the secrets of effective classroom management and motivating reluctant students. Master presentation and teaching skills. Bring back to your district, school, or classroom a wealth of ideas that you can use immediately for students and for training teachers. This fun-filled, hands-on seminar is ideal for classroom teachers, mentor teachers, administrators, and teacher trainers.

“Hands down the most useful training I’ve EVER attended”

Sherry Devenburg, former Middle School Principal, Crescent View, Utah.

What you will learn:

A deepening understanding of what works in classroom management and why, including:

- Key ways that teachers can grow from inner apology to inner authority
- How teachers can “hold their ground” while inviting student cooperation
- Dozens of practical eye opening strategies for managing classes effectively
- Giving directions clearly and efficiently
- A variety of "nuts and bolts" that are vital for classroom survival

Brain Compatible Teaching Skills, including:

- Fifty Ways to leave your lecture. Active engagement strategies for the classroom and the staff meeting
- Seven ways to motivate reluctant participants
- Brain-compatible visuals for content, procedures, and behavior
- Music that motivates
- Use of voice, gesture, timing, and movement
- Humor - how and when to use it
- How to create a climate for maximum learning and fun
